VOLUME XXIII

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1920.

NUMBER 18.

Tribute to Mrs. Kinnie Murrell.

"When the glories of nature Appeal most to thee
Remember I loved them,
And think thou of me.
"While in dreams a chain of music Softly breaks upon thine ear, Think of the choir invisible, And believe that I am near.
"When the fragrance of Easter lilies Regales thee, with subtle power Remember the Bard hath said, A spirit's in every flower.
"Let the cadence and swell of the organ,
At Holy Christmas tide, Be to thee, a loving message For lo! I sit by thy side."
The above lines were written for another, but they are so applicable to the late Mrs. Corinne Murrell, that we reproduce them, selected from the Lebanon Enterprise. It is hard to realize that she who was so bright, the light of a happy home, has gone from among us. Her smiling face, gentle manners, sweet ways will be beautiful memories. Yet with these memories come deep recollections of her wonderful motherhood, of a trustful spirit, and a great and generous heart. She loved beauty, the beauty of high thoughts and the harmony of sweet sounds. In taking her departure she said to her loving daughter and her brother-in-law, "I want you to keep the home and carry on its affairs the same as if I were here." In loving flowers and other baubles she found happiness for herself and passed it on to others.

LOST.—A 5-gallon oil can in Columbia. The finder will leave at this office. S. F. McKinley.

A Large Poultry House.

Columbia will soon have the largest and most convenient poultry house in all this section of the State. Hutchinson & McKinley already had what is termed a large building, but they are now adding seventy-seven feet, which will give them straight floor room of one hundred and fifty-seven feet.
They are also making valuable improvements on the old part of the building, and the new addition will have every modern fixture for taking care of poultry and eggs.

LOST, a bunch of Keys. Return to Dr. H. W. Depp and receive a reward.

Saturday evening, Feb. 14, 1920, Miss Leonora Lowe informally entertained a number of friends at her home on "Bomar Heights." The evening was very delightfully spent with music, games and dancing. The decorations were pink and white, the colors being carried out in the refreshments. The favors were miniature pink heart-shaped baskets filled with Bonbons and mints. Those receiving invitations were: Misses Maude Griffith, Elizabeth Cornell, Susan Miller, Vic Hughes, Alma May, Leonora Lowe. Messrs. Billy Cundiff, John D. Lowe, Jr., Doc Walker, Felix Rouse, Horace Cundiff, Henry Hancock, Rollin Cundiff, Mr. and Mrs.
A. L. Eubanks.

Furniture of all styles.
Nell & Cheatham.

John D. Lowe, Jr., of this place, sold a crop of Judy's Pride tobacco on the Lebanon loose leaf floor recently, which averaged $65.00 per hundred.
This was the highest average made on any tobacco sold the day this sale was made.

I will hold my next mule sale at my barn in Columbia Monday March 1st. I will sell in this sale a better lot of mules than the good punch I sold at my last sale at this place.

S. M. Burdette.

The time for closing the loose leaf house at Campbellsville is fast approaching. If you have tobacco for sale ship it, in good condition, now.

Ladies and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hosiery, and all kinds of rubber goods, and fine stationery.

Nell & Cheatham.

Died in Indiana.

Monday of last week Mrs. Lou Vaughan, who was the beloved companion of Mr. Bram B. Vaughan, died at her late home, Charlestown, Ind.

The deceased was a native of Adair county, and also her husband, the town of Columbia being their residence for a number of years. She was a Miss Harmon before her marriage, and leaves one brother, Mont, and four sisters, Mesdames A. W.
Triplett, J. A. Harmon, Jas. Hutchinson and Sallie Smith, in this county.
She was also a sister of Eld. M. F.
Harmon, a prominent minister of the Christian Church, pastor of the First Church, Mobile, Ala. Of her immediate family, besides her husband, she leaves five children, who are now passing through the most trying hours of their lives.

The interment was in Charlestown Wednesday of last week, many friends being in attendance.

To those who are passing through this terrible ordeal, we would say, take your sorrow to the Giver of all that is good, for He alone can pour the balm of Gilead into torn and bleeding hearts.

Druggetts and all kinds Floor covering.

Married by Rev. Mr. Caseley.

Friends in this city will be surprised to hear of the marriage of George W. Mason, of the city, and Miss Flora E. East, of Garlin, Kentucky, which took place last evening at 7 o'clock, in the pastor's study of the Grace M.
E. church. Rev. Caseley officiated.
Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Parrish of Normal.

Mr. Mason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mason of 204 East Empire street. He is well known in this city.
At present he is employed by the Campbell Holton Company of this city.

Mrs. Mason came here some time ago from Garlin, Kentucky. During her stay here she has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Nolon Montgomery of North Clark street.

The couple will take no wedding journey, but will go to housekeeping at once at 204 East Empire street.—
The Daily Bulletin, Bloomington, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs.
Rosa East, of Garlin, and was a prominent teacher of the county. She has many friends in Columbia.

Lost, on the public square, a new fountain pen, made by the Bankers' Pen Company. Finder will return to H. N. Miller, Columbia, Ky.

Death Near Cane Valley.

Last Saturday night Mrs. Clara Corbin, wife of Mr. T. F. Corbin, died at her late home, near Cane Valley, a victim of the flu. She was about 34 years old, and was an excellent Christian woman. Besides her husband she leaves several children. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, the church being well filled with sympathizing friends and relatives. Those who have been bereft of this good woman, should take their sorrow and distress to God.

For Sale.

A 15 horse Case Tractor engine, one 28 Case Separator, one 6 roll corn thresher, one Russell saw rig. All the above is comparatively new and in good running shape.

Ray Page, Cane Valley, Ky.

The following young people enjoyed a very delightful party, given by Miss Rachel Coffey, last Friday night: Allene Nell, Mabel Rosenbaum, Katie Taylor, Melvin Phelps, Morris Epperson, Louie Fesse, Frank Callison.

Full line of men's overalls and Jackets and work shirts.

Sam Burdette sold twenty-four mules at Edmonton Saturday of last week. They brought from $240 to $500 a pair.

JUDGE RALPH GILBERT ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS.

Well Known Shelby County Democrat Enters Race For Position Now Held By Republican.

RALPH GILBERT.

Democrats of Adair county will be interested this morning to learn of the announcement of Judge Ralph Gilbert, of Shelby County, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, in the State Primary election to be held Saturday, August 7, 1920.

Judge Gilbert's candidacy comes as a response to a fast growing demand from Democrats all over the district for a new man to offer who is fresh from the people—a man who has the ability and the energy to make a vigorous campaign and carry the fight to the Republicans—a man who has never known defeat.

Judge Gilbert is such man. He is not only a successful lawyer, but he possesses the business qualifications and that indomitable energy so necessary in the making of a Congressman of the first rank. He has only held one public office—that of County Judge of Shelby county—which position he filled for eight years with satisfaction to the entire citizenship.

A forceful speaker and an aggressive campaigner, Judge Gilbert, if honored with the Democratic nomination, can be depended upon to redeem the district from Republican control, as it was redeemed before by his father, the late George G. Gilbert, back in 1898, which was the only other time it was ever represented by a Republican.

Judge Gilbert expects to meet and speak to the Democrats of Adair county as the campaign gets under way and in the meantime he will appreciate a careful consideration of his candidacy at your hands.—Shelbyville News.

Married in Texas.

It will be a surprise to many Adair county people to learn that Miss Mollie Flowers, who was a popular young lady of Gradyville, and well-known in Columbia, where she often visited with many friends, was happily married in Dallas, Texas, on Sunday, the 8th day of February. The lucky groom is Mr. Louie Hoffmaster, a young business man of Dallas.

After the ceremony there was an elegant and delightful repast which was served by Miss Jackie White, a special friend of the bride.

In the early morning after the ceremony the happy couple left on a bridal tour, to visit a number of interesting cities.

When the couple comes this way there will be many glad hands ready to be extended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. G.
T. Flowers, Sr., this place, and for some months she has been with her brothers, Garfield and Lee, in Texas.

She received many valuable presents.

Potatoes Wanted.

Will pay $2.50 to $3.00 per bushel in merchandise for 50 bushel.

Sympathy for Rev. Smith.

The sympathy of our citizenry is extended to Rev. L. J. B. Smith, pastor of the Columbia Baptist church in the great loss he has suffered by the death of his affianced wife, Miss Ella Phillips, of New Zealand, who passed away early Sunday morning, last, at London, Ky., after a brief illness. Miss Phillips was a young woman of a superior type, a devout member of the Baptist church, and a musician of marked ability. At the time of her death she was engaged in teaching music in the Methodist College, London. Her only relative in this country is her mother, who accompanied her to the United States, and was with her at the time of her death.
Mr. Smith received the sad message by wire Sunday at 7 a. m., and left at once for London. Funeral service and burial took place at Somerset, Ky., Tuesday, Feb. 24th.

For Sale.

One Typewriter, good as new.
J. P. Beard, Columbia, Ky.

On St. Valentine Day.

A marriage that was quite a surprise to the young people of Columbia took place in the afternoon of February 14th, in the city of Louisville, when Mr. John Rose, who is a bookkeeper in the Bank of Columbia, a young man of excellent character and standing, and Miss Zora Fesse, a handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
W. A. Fesse, Coburg, were happily married. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few witnesses and friends by Rev. J. C. Hoskinson, of the Methodist Church. There were no objections to the union so far as we know, and we take it that the couple left home for the ceremony in order to surprise their many friends.

The groom was an overseas soldier and engaged in fifteen battles. He has now started to battle for a handsome living for himself and companion, and there is not a doubt in our mind but he will win out.

He and his bride certainly have the best wishes of all Columbia.

At present they will board with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keen.

MULES AT AUCTION.

I will sell at my barn in Columbia, on Monday, March 1st, thirty extra good mules 3 to 7 years old, 15 to 16 hands high. These mules are the good, heavy, thick kind.
Will weigh from 900 to 1300 lbs.
If you want a good team or single mule you can find it in this sale.
Every mule will positively be sold without reserve or limit.

Col. H. C. Coleman and Col. T.
J. Lawhorn, Auctioneers.

Death at Gadberry.

Last Friday night Miss Grace Bennett, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bennett, died on what is known as the Johnson farm in the Gadberry neighborhood. She was a victim of pulmonary trouble and had been confined to her room for some weeks.
She was about twenty years old and was quite a favorite with those whom she had associated. A large circle of friends attended the burial.

Save Money on Shoes.

We can save you from 50 cts to $1.50 per pair on shoes.

Sunday, Feb. 29th.

A special service will be held in Columbia Baptist Church, on Sunday night at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Quest and Conquest." This service is for every body, but especially for young people. All under 100 years of age cordially invited.

Leslie J. B. Smith, Pastor.

IN COLUMBIA BASTILE.

Two Noted Criminals Arrested in Indiana Towns and Landed Behind the Bars Here.

Our readers will remember that in the year 1915, Grover Cape, who lived on Melson's Ridge, Adair county, was shot and killed at a gathering by Bryant Shearer, who immediately left the county, and he kept his tracks well hid until about eight days ago, a wanderer upon the face of the earth.

At the first term of the Adair circuit court following, Shearer was indicted for murder. The authorities here were notified a few days ago that he was under arrest at Terre Haute, Ind. Sheriff Sanders had just started to Kokomo, Ind., to bring back Jo Sexton, charged with stealing cattle from a farmer in the upper end of the county, when the news of Shearer's arrest arrived.

Mr. M. C. Winfrey, Circuit Court clerk, started at once with the necessary papers. He overtook Sheriff Sanders and the two went to Frankfort, secured requisitions on the Governor of Indiana from the Governor of Kentucky. Armed with the requisitions, Mr. Winfrey went to Terre Haute, where Shearer was delivered to him, and Sheriff Sanders went to Kokomo, and took charge of Sexton.

The officers and the two prisoners landed in Columbia Friday night.
Both Shearer and Sexton were landed in Jail. Their cases will be called at the term of circuit court, commencing next Monday, and dates for their trials fixed.

The bringing of these two criminal to justice is a feather in the caps of the Adair county officers, who are loud in their praise of the Indiana officials.
